

This Code of Conduct must be upheld by all members. Members in a volunteer or leadership role are required to formally agree to this code of conduct by signing it.

A Member will:

1. Abide by the values of the Stroke Recovery Association of British Columbia, which are Respect, Inclusion, and Support, and adhere to its policies and rules outlined in the Policy Manual.
2. Bring honour and dignity to Stroke Recovery Association of British Columbia and uphold its reputation and integrity.
3. Demonstrate respect for all members through words, actions and behaviour.
4. Be vigilant in ensuring an environment that is safe and protects members from the threat of emotional, physical, verbal or sexual abuse.
5. Uphold and protect the personal and professional reputation of other members'.
6. Respect other members' right to privacy and the confidentiality of members' personal information.
7. Act with honesty and integrity when dealing with property, monies and any other assets belonging to Stroke Recovery Association of British Columbia.
8. Pursue at all times only the aims of the Association.
9. Not speak on behalf of the organization, unless it is either expressly indicated in a job description, upon invitation, or with authorization from the Association.
10. Respect and uphold the anti-discrimination laws of Canada and British Columbia. The Stroke Recovery Association of British Columbia will not tolerate discrimination against a member or non-member of the Stroke Recovery Association of British Columbia based on race, national or ethnic origin, citizenship, colour, religion, sex, age, mental or physical ability, political beliefs, socio-economic status, health related status, sexual orientation, or marital status.
11. Respect and abide by the laws of British Columbia and Canada.

I will uphold this code of conduct. I will fulfill my role and responsibility in service to the Association, and only act within the limitations of my personal authority in the discharge of my duties.

Name: _____

Date: _____